Town council says 'no' to Vearse Farm

BRIDPORT Town Council's planning committee rejected advice from a senior planning officer and opposed the controversial Vearse Farm development this week.

At a special meeting of the town's plans committee on Monday night, councillors and residents gave their views on the outline application submitted by Hallam Land Management for 760 homes on the edge of the town.

They said they were concerned about the size and siting of the development, potential flooding, highways issues – such as the Miles Cross junction by Symondsbury – and access to the development, and securing the 35 per cent of affordable housing being proposed for local people.

The site is included in the recently adopted West Dorset, Weymouth and Portland Local Plan as an area for development of up to 760 homes, employment land, a care home, a new school and two access points on West Road.

The local plan, which acts as a development blueprint for the area, makes it difficult to block applications for approved sites.

Andrew Martin, West Dorset District Council's planning case officer, advised town councillors to stop fighting the application and decide what are priorities for the town and the development.

He said: "What I suggest you now do is accept the fact that the principle of development has been accepted and you work on shaping it, and ensuring it provides those things which are essential to the needs of the 760 houses that will be provided as part of that development, and also what is important to the town."

However councillors agreed that without a master plan – a document that sets out in more detail what will be involved, the design, landscaping and the scale, amongst others, that creates a clear framework for development – in place for the development, that the application was not ready and planning permission should not be given, regardless of Hallam Land inviting councillors to a workshop about a master plan.

Cllr Dave Rickard said: "The idea of drawing up a master plan, after the planning application has come in, is sheer lunacy. Anybody who does not do a master plan before they start thinking about what they are going to do... that is just upside down.

"You start with the master plan and then build, you design around your plan... we must have a master

ANTONIA Squire is the owner of The Book Shop in South Street, Bridport. She recently relocated back to the UK after 20 years in the US, in San Francisco, Chicago and Minnesota. She was raised in Surrey and went to school in North Yorkshire, going on to university in America.

While in San Francisco, Mrs Squire served on the boards of American Booksellers for Children (ABC), a trade organisation representing children's independent booksellers and the Northern California Independent Booksellers Association (NCIBA), a regional trade association where she served as the education chair.

TELL us a bit more about yourself...

I am a big believer in shopping locally both personally and for my business. My personal passions are for education and literacy and I think reading is key to an educated populace and engaged citizenry. I think that a book is only "old" if you've read it and my job is nothing more than putting the right book in the hands of the right person. I don't believe there is any such thing as a reluctant reader, only someone who hasn't found the right book yet.

WHY did you decide to move to the area?

I decided to move back to the UK because I honestly couldn't stomach another election cycle; we get a little bit of it here, but it is non-stop over there, even in a liberal stronghold like the Bay Area and the tone of the discourse is so ugly, and only likely to get more misogynistic the closer Hillary gets to the democratic nomination. I decided to move to Bridport because there was a lovely little bookshop for sale. I visited briefly before deciding, and my husband agreed to move here sight unseen. Neither one of us is regretting the rather spontaneous decision, we've both fallen in love with West Dorset.

WHERE did your passion for books stem from? Absolutely no idea, it's just always been there. I can say that I have always loved stories, and the idea of the story in any format - books, TV, films, etc. I do remember when it became imperative that I learn to read. I wanted my mum to read me a story, which most of the time she was more than willing to do. I was probably about five at the time and learning to read in school but I wanted the story rather than the struggle of putting the letters together into words. It took ages for me to find her, but when I finally tracked her down, sitting on the floor on the other but I'm pretty sure she was hiding) reading a book I asked her to read mine to me. She said no, she was reading her book. I was shocked and became a proficient reader very quickly after that.

WHAT is your favourite book and author?

I can't even begin to answer this question, it really depends on the mood. So today I'm loving Michael

INTERVIEW

Lewis' econ books; Charlie Higson's Zombie series for teens; Pride and Prejudice and Good Omens go on any list I'm doing at any time so we can add those in. I loved Elizabeth is Missing by Emma Healey and I'd Tell You I love You But Then I'd Have To Kill You by Ally Carter. The Book Thief was a profound and visceral read for me, but not one that I would want to repeat, the same goes for Thirteen Reasons Why by Jay Asher and Lovely Bones by Alice Sebold.

The Ghost Map by Steven Johnson hit all my non-fiction likes - history, mystery and science all in one tale - as did The Devil in the White City (architecture not science) by Erik Larson and The Surgeon of Crowthorne (linguistics not science) by Simon Winchester. History of the World in Six Glasses and Freakonomics take traditional areas of study and look at them from a different angle so I like that, and Mary Roach looks at taboo subjects and introduces us to them in a way that makes us laugh, which enables us to get past the taboo to the really interesting top-

I like books that are evocative, that will make me laugh or cry, that provoke empathy. Writer's who can do that are my favourites.

ARE you a member of any British bookseller associations?

Yes, I am a member of the Booksellers Association but I'm not quite as involved as I would like to be once I have The Bookshop up and running.

WHAT three items would you most like to have if you were stranded on a desert island?

This is really difficult! Usually it's which books would you like to have on a desert island so I have it narrowed down to Pride and Prejudice and Good Omens, which leaves me one extra depending on mood, but you are asking about items. Well, a blade and a way to make fire are absolutely necessary - does that mean that I now have to narrow my books down to one? OK, got it. I will take Pride and Prejudice, Good Omens and a waterproof, solar powered satellite phone with GPS for quick rescue (I don't really do "roughing it"!)

IF you could start life over again, what would you most like to do?

I would be a bookseller.

WHAT do you like to do in your free time?

I do rather like to read, but that shouldn't come as to much of a surprise.

agreed with Mr Martin that they should use this time to respond with a list of what the town no, no' that this application is going to go away; it is not going to go

"In my opinion, we need to state our priorities and the first priority is social housing, the second priority is trying to make this scheme a zero carbon scheme.

"The sort of thing Bridport wants is not a Poundbury, it wants everything that Poundbury wasn't; a zero carbon scheme, it should be totally beneficial to the town, and low impact.

"The third one I think is contributing to a much more sustainable transport system for the town as a whole."

Cllr Jones explained that the solution to that issue was not yet clear, but he argued that hundreds of extra houses at Vearse Farm would tip the town into traffic chaos and congestion.

He suggested more encouragement for residents to walk and cycle. which could result in an overall better transport system in the town.

When the council voted to oppose the application, Cllr Jones abstained.

The proposed development is in the Symondsbury parish and Bridport Town Council was consulted as an adjoining parish.

Symondsbury Parish Council were due to discuss the application at their meeting last night.

Glimpse into Bridport's past with the Dorset film archive

LONG forgotten films from West Dorset's past are to be shown on Bridport's big screen at the Electric Palace later this month.

Historian Trevor Bailey, from Windrose Rural Media Trust, has put together a special show, which includes old footage of Bridport's net and rope industry, Bridport railway before it closed in the 1960s, and the Bridport Pageant of 1953 when Princess Margaret came to town to celebrate 700 years of Bridport's Royal Charter and the Coronation of the Queen for the opening performance.

The Bridport Pageant – also known as 'Bridport Through the Ages' – had six performances with 1,300 performers.

The film will also feature Symondsbury in the 1930s, West Bay, Palmers Brewery's sign writer George Biles, Charlie Wills, the 93-year-old traditional singer from Morcombelake, and the cider makers from Shaves Cross.

Trevor Bailey said: "This is people's history come to life, we are showing a wide variety of films from the Bridport area and other parts of Dorset.

"One of Windrose's enduring missions is to save and copy old cine film of local life, so that we can see the past of our own villages, towns and countryside in the most vivid way possible.

"Our archive is now very large, including films dating from 1903 onwards, and our shows have attracted audiences of many thousands."

Windrose Rural Media Trust is a registered charity that uses TV, video, radio and archive film for the benefit of the community, especially in rural areas.

It creates experimental projects to advance community involvement in the media.

Tickets for the Dorset Film Archive, which takes place on Friday, November 20th at 7.30pm, cost £10.50 in advance at Bridport Electric Palace box office, Bridport Tourist information Centre and online at www. seetickets.com

Police to trial drones

POLICE in Dorset, along with forces in Devon and Cornwall, are to start a six-month trial of drones, to aid officers in a number of policing matters.

Dorset Police is currently undertaking final preparations and is due to begin trailing two drones – a Phantom 2 plus and a DJI Inspire – from Thursday, November 26th.

The drones, which are equipped with high definition (HD) cameras and can capture both video and still images, could be used to help officers with missing people searches and crime scene photography.

Inspector Andy Hamilton, who is leading the trials as part of the alliance operations department, said: "Drones offer many benefits that complement the National Police Air Service (NPAS) helicopter and is by no means a replacement for this service.

"This technology offers a potentially highly cost effective approach to missing person searches, crime scene photography, and responding to major road traffic collisions.

"Using a drone to capture footage on difficult terrain and hard to reach areas, such as cliffs or woodland, to find a missing person, combat wildlife crime or even a firearm incident, will allow officers to gain vital information, quickly, safely, and allow us to respond effectively at the scene."

Civil Aviation Authority (CAA) regulations state that drone operators must pass a national CAA accredited qualification, with Dorset currently having three trained pilots.

Inspector Hamilton added: "This technology still has its limitations, the models we are trailing are currently unable to fly at night or in adverse weather, but having the option to put a drone in the air in a few minutes' notice could help save "The drones have a HD downlink, which means officers on the ground can see live footage captured by the drone in the air.

"It can stay in the air for up to 18 minutes at a time before returning to the operator to change batteries.

"Each drone has several batteries and therefore can be kept operational for a prolonged period of time if required."

Hope for extra parking space

PARKING at Plottingham playing fields, behind the Foyer – a housing facility for young people – has been earmarked for extension by Bridport Town Council.

The area could be extended and a parking metre installed.

Town surveyor Daryl Chambers said: "At the moment we have parking for about 25 cars. It is a piece of land the town council owns and various users park there.

"We are looking to extend the car parking in the town, we are short of parking down there and it seems an obvious place as it is used as a car park already.

"We will put in a planning application, people can have their say on it, but it seems like a natural progression.

"We are looking at options of putting a [parking] metre in there, on par with the football Bridport Leisure Centre] at £2 a day.

"Money raised from that car park would help to support the maintenance of that area."

A planning application had not yet been submitted at the time of going to press.

Bridport remembers

feel around the War Memorial in South Street on Sunday as the people of Bridport assembled to pay their respects to all those that gave their lives fighting for their country.

Leaden grey skies and leaves falling from the trees in St Mary's churchyard gave the proceedings a sombre feel.

The weather didn't deter either the organisations or the public, as associations from veterans to vouth organisations laid wreaths in the traditional Remembrance Day Parade.

Led by Brigadier John Dean (Royal Artillery retired) the parade of around 300 people were first inspected by the Mayor of Bridport, Cllr Sandra Brown, in East Street, before marching from the town hall to the war memorial led by the Wessex Military Band under bandmaster Phil Bond.

Brig Dean was assisted by Parade Marshall Captain Nick Taylor 2IC 'C' Company 6th Rifles, and Serjeant Major Tindall also of "C" Company 6th Rifles.

Heading the Civic Party was Cpl Antonia Petchey of the Bridport Army Cadet Force carrying the Town Union Standard, and following in his father's footsteps, Keiran Taylor, son of Capt Taylor, carrying the Rifles Association flag.

The macebearers Cyril Whitlock and Paul Violet attended the mayor who was also joined by a member each from the 1st West Bay (Mayor's Own) Sea Scouts and the Bridport Sea Cadet Corp TS Keppel.

Addressing the parade, organised by Bridport Town Council on behalf of the Bridport Branch of the Royal British Legion, and the crowd of several hundred in attendance, Brig Dean read the poignant poem 'In Flanders Fields' written by John McCrae in May 1915 during the second week of fighting at the Second Battle of Ypres, after which the Rev'd Peter Stone led the prayers prior to the two minute silence.

The Last Post, immaculately played by Trumpet Major Cerie Brady, drifted on the autumnal air before Brig Dean delivered the Royal British Legion Exhor-

The Wessex Military Band played in the church, with readings by Brig Dean and the Mayor of Bridport.

After the conclusion of the service, the band headed the parade back to Bucky Doo Square where the mayor took the salute before addressing those present.

Cllr Sandra Brown said: "I would like to thank everyone who took part and attended the parade and service, and to the hard work by everyone involved for making it such a special day.

"I was particularly pleased to see so many young people taking part; I think it is the most I have ever seen, which is won-

"It was also great to see so many of them in church and would like to congratulate the Rev Peter Stone for the way he involved them in the service.

"He certainly has a way of connecting with children and it showed in their reaction."

Lunch to help stop polio

THE Rotary Club of Brit Valley are holding a Frugal Lunch this Friday (13th) in aid of End Polio Now, an international project raising funds to eradicate polio around the world.

With only two countries, Afghanistan and Pakistan reporting cases this year, it appears the campaign is winning.

Whilst Pakistan accounted for nearly 90 per cent of the world's cases in 2014, the country are reporting a near 75 percent reduction in cases in the first half of 2015 compared to the same time in 2014, whilst fewer than ten cases have been reported in Afghanistan so far this year.

The lunch takes place at Salwayash Village Hall starting at 12.20pm.

Tickets cost £7.50 each and include a glass of wine or fruit juice as well as a lunch which is unlikely to be too frugal!

These can be obtained in advance, which would help the caterers, by ringing John Bowden on 01308 897042, but can be obtained on the door.

All the money raised goes to the End Polio Now campaign, and with the target so close, you can help bring that about quicker, by going along and enjoying lunch.

■ RESIDENTS of Shipton Gorge held their own Remembrance Sunday service on November 8th, to honour and remember all those who had lost their lives at war. The service, led by the Reverend Stephen Batty, was held at St Martin's Church, and Reverend Batty dedicated a memorial board commemorating a full peal, pictured, rung earlier this year to mark the centenary of the death of Private Will Sanders of the Dorsetshire regiment, on May 2nd 1915, who was a resident and bell ringer at Shipton Gorge

MEMBERS of BYPAT, Bridport Town Council and Mountjoy school council who have helped with the play area process, receive a cheque for £10,000 to go towards the extension of the West Bay play area from Dorset County Council's Inspired by 2012 Health and Wellbeing Legacy Fund

PLANS to extend the play area at West Bay to include equipment for the disabled are one step closer thanks to a funding boost from Dorset County Council (DCC).

Members of Bridport Young Persons Action Trust (BYPAT) and Bridport Town Council have been awarded £10,000 from the council's third round of the Inspired by 2012 Health and Wellbeing Legacy Fund.

The money will provide a new inclusive community facility at West Bay, and will include specialised equipment for children, young people and adults with dis-

Chris Skinner, DCC sports project officer managing the Inspired by 2012 Health and Wellbeing Legacy Fund, said: "The play facility has been hugely successful at West Bay and the legacy fund panel were extremely keen to help create a more inclusive facility for people with disabilities and special needs.

"The impact on health is clear when participants can socialise and play in the great outdoors, especially with locally designed inclusive facilities."

Arthur Woodgate, chair of BYPAT, applied for the funding to help meet project costs, which is predicted to total £98,063, who said that this award has brought them within a breath of the projected budget, and that all involved were confident of being able to raise the final £10,000 needed with more than £80,000 already secured.

He said: "It was a good bid to the Health and Wellbeing Legacy Fund, but was one of 75 they received.

"The requests totalled over £1million they had £200,000 at their disposal. All we could do was keep our fingers crossed and hope, so you can image how we felt when we received their letter saying 'your project fully met the criteria and priorities...and the panel have no doubt that it will have an incredibly positive impact on health outcomes for those involved'."

The Health and Wellbeing Legacy Fund gives grants to projects that address health inequalities across Dorset and the aim is to inspire communities by investing in projects that focus on the particularly vulnerable.

Rebecca Knox, Dorset county councillor and chair of the Dorset Health and Wellbeing Board, said: "The legacy fund budget of £700,000 has awarded grants to 56 fantastic projects.

"We are pleased to be able to provide funding that will help remind people of the superb 2012 Olympics and hopefully inspire them to get out there and do something."

Silence is golden

AN avid Bridport fundraiser has raised more than £200 for a local charity after giving up the gift of the gab for a day.

Roz Copson managed to raise around £207.50 for The Living Tree, with more sponsorship to come, when she silently sat for 12 hours in the Ropemakers pub, West Street, last week.

Ms Copson wanted to do something different from her previous fundraisers, which have included rowing, swimming and completing the Jurassic coast walk, so she set herself the challenge of a sponsored silence.

She said: "I was dreading it, it was the only sponsored event I have ever dreaded but the team at the Ropemakers were so helpful and kind.

"I would like to thank them very much and all the people who put donations in my bucket, it raised a lot more than I expected – thank you to everyone for their support.

"Staying silent for 12 hours was ok, I kept myself focused, and I was writing so many notes to people explaining what I was doing.

"Completing this only adds to my personal view that local people in Bridport and West bay are incredibly generous where charity funding is needed."

The Living Tree is a local cancer support group, which helps those living with or recovering from cancer.

Memorial fund continues to support local athlete

SUPPORTERS of the Terry Collin Fund have continued their backing of a young local horse rider.

Charlie Bailey was awarded an extra £1,000 last week from the fund, which supports disabled sportsmen and women in West Dorset.

The keen athlete, who received £2,000 from the fund last year, suffered a bad accident when he was younger which has resulted in him having to wear a splint on his leg.

But he has continued to pursue his dream and the money will go towards furthering his career and aspirations.

by Lottie Welch lottie@pemedia.co.uk

Charlie said: "My goal would to be in the Olympic team and to enter into the under 18 teams, but to get there I need a good horse.

"I want to be able to say that I have broken this horse, worked this horse and trained it. I don't want to spend £8,000 on an already perfect dressage horse, that is not what I want.

"Thank you for the donation, it has really helped me and if it wasn't for that, I wouldn't be where I am now."

The Terry Collin Fund was set up in memory of former Bridport and Lyme Regis News sport editor, Terry Collin, who died in 2002.

His sisters, Heather Crabb, Mary Reed and Anna Fowles run the fund and have donated around £23,000 to local athletes, including Paul Blake, who won a bronze and silver medal in the 2014 IPC Athletics European Championships, and deaflympics silver medallist swimmer Lulu Cummings.

Heather Crabb said: "Charlie keeps us regularly updated with what he is doing through newsletters, which is really good.

"We have met some lovely people along the way through this fund, all local talent, and Terry would be so interested in what they are doing.

"I think all the donations have been really well received."

Great opportunities for Woodroffe Sixth Formers

LIFE in the Woodroffe School Sixth Form offers a great number of new opportunities for students to get involved with, from visits to New York and Paris to scaling the heights of Snowdon, they are making the most of it all. For example, here is an account of a recent field trip to Roche Court Sculpture Park by the A Level Art group:

"An unusually beautiful morning greeted the AS Art students on the last day of September for their visit to Roche Court, the lovely sculpture park in Salisbury.

"On arrival the students were whisked away on a tour of the park and provided with informed curatorship from their expert guide Josepha. They were able to broaden their contextual awareness and understanding as they were prompted about their own thoughts on the selected exhibits. These ranged from 30ft conjoined hares cast in bronze to more interactive pieces such as the fibreglass spaceship, which works wonderfully well as a lounger for fifteen.

"As the day went on the students were exposed to a broad range of works noting: the scale, placement, medium and intention of each artist who produced them. First hand observation of artwork is a vital part of the appreciation of it. The works were sketched and photographed enabling the students to enhance their recording skills and artistic experience. They also became more aware of their own subjectivity; they were asked if they actually liked the works, some found this a difficult question whereas others were less ambivalent and able to vocalise their opinions clearly and eloquently. The realisation that looking at art is a two-way activity and very much depends on the individuals' sensitivities and personal tastes soon became apparent.

"Ultimately the students were able to engage, asking pertinent questions and offering imaginative ideas about what the artworks meant to them. They were reflective and analytical in their deciphering of the visual clues offered by each piece.

"A relaxing lunchtime picnic was enjoyed on the grounds, followed by further observational sketching. A very successful trip and an absolute pleasure in such clement conditions."

Beaminster man's rural manifesto adopted across Europe

A BEAMINSTER man has written a manifesto fighting for the future of rural communities, which has been adopted by 40 countries across Europe.

Michael Dower, an experienced champion of people living in the countryside, has been working with colleagues in 40 European countries to find out what people think about the future of their rural communities and rural economies.

From this, Mr Dower wrote a draft manifesto, which was approved by representatives from the different countries at a meeting in Austria earlier this month of the European Rural Parliament, of which he is a joint co-ordinator.

'All Europe Shall Live' promotes action on 30 key issues for people in rural Europe, and calls for full recognition of the right for rural communities to a quality of life and standard of living equal to that of urban populations, and to full participation in political processes.

Mr Dower, 81, who boasts a 55-year career in town planning and rural development, including a period as director general of the Countryside Commission, said: "The manifesto is important because people in rural areas in many parts of Europe are concerned by the narrowness of rural economies, the lack of opportunities for satisfying and fairly paid work, the loss of population as young people move away, the decline in rural services, the suffering of older people, poverty and exclusion among disadvantaged people or ethnic minorities.

"There is urgent need for action to reverse the spiral of decline, to encourage and enable young people to live and thrive in the countryside, to ensure that rural services such as shops, post offices, schools and bus services are sustained.

"We believe that by working together across many European countries, we can influence governments and the European Union to help rural communities to remain viable.

"The manifesto contains a clear statement of actions to be taken by rural people themselves, by their associations and by EU-funded groups."

The European Rural Parliament – which is a long-term campaign to express the voice of rural people in Europe - is jointly initiated by three rural networks: PREPARE, a partnership for rural Europe, of which Mr Dower is a member: the European Rural Community Alliance (ERCA); and the European Leader Association for Rural Development (ELARD).

Now that the manifesto has been adopted, the three European networks will take the action points and go forward with networking, campaigning, action projects and exchanges between countries.

Mr Dower was also a founder chairman of Rural Voice, an organisation which brought together all the main rural organisations in England, including the National Farmers Union, Country Land and Business Association, the Campaign to Protect Rural England, parish councils' associations, churches, rural community councils and women's institutes to campaign at a national level to promote the interest of rural communities.

Dorset councils' partnership moves forward

WEST Dorset District Council has joined forces with two other local councils as a local government partnership has moved forward.

The three councils – including Weymouth and Portland Borough Council and North Dorset District Council – became one workforce at the start of the month in a bid to transform services and save millions.

A joint statement has been released by Anthony Alford, leader of West Dorset District Council, Ian Bruce, chairman of Weymouth and Portland Borough Council's management committee, and Deborah Croney, Leader of North Dorset District Council.

They said: "Our ground breaking Dorset Councils'

Partnership will bring huge rewards to our communities

'Together we will have greater resilience, a stronger voice and, crucially in today's climate, the ability to reduce our costs through transforming services.

"We expect to save £6 million by 2020, which is on top of other cost reductions, implemented or planned.

"However, our partnership is not just about reducing costs, we are also on a journey to transform services and make them easier to access online."

The Dorset Councils' partnership will have a single workforce to serve all three councils, however, each will remain independent and equal, with its own councillors who will continue to make local decisions about services.

Each council will continue to set its own budget, council tax and maintain its separate identity, brand and sovereignty.

The partnership is hoped to be able to streamline services, rationalise its assets, share office accommodation, free up capital, make economies of scale and other efficiency improvements.

There will be a larger group of staff that can be deployed in the event of an emergency or big event and it will also mean the councils will have more experience and expertise to draw on. Joined up strategic service planning is also being improved and two councils in the partnership, West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council, already have a shared local plan. Together the councils serve 235,000 people and cover 669 square miles, more than half the county of Dorset.

Work being done in partnership with Purbeck District Council will continue.

This includes providing a shared revenues and benefits system that serves Purbeck, West Dorset and Weymouth and Portland.

Councils in the south east of the county – Bournemouth and Poole Borough Council, Christchurch Borough Council and East Dorset District Council – are also exploring the possibility of a new single authority in order to save money and deliver more efficient service provision.

MEMBERS of The Bridport Art Society have

Colin started his career as an artist after completing a course in illustration and design at Canterbury College of Art and has worked for many high profile companies focusing on illustration work and visualising for advertising campaigns.

Starting the demonstration with a canvas coloured in bright pink and with a detailed drawing of a New York street scene, he proceeded to block in areas of colour with the picture actually sideways on the easel. This, he explained, means that you paint what you actually see and not what you think you see. Using a limited amount of bold colours, he built up the blocks of colour around the picture before turning it the right way around to display the bones of the city street scene. He then went on to accentuate the detail of the cars, the buildings and the street scene, emphasising the need to start with an accurate drawing with correct perspective. The finished painting was a vibrant and lively depiction of a busy city in New York and quite an inspiration for anyone wishing to approach a different style.

Next month, Lynda Kettle demonstrates 'Gardens' in Pastels and all members and their guests are welcome at the St John Ambulance Hall at 7.30pm on Thursday November 26th. Anyone wishing to join the society, please contact the secretary on 01308

Open morning held for Moving On

MOVING On, a group helping people recover from mental illness, opened their doors to the public last week to raise awareness of what they offer.

Halloween-themed cakes were offered to visitors alongside the chance to win a Ghost-busters Halloween cake in a raffle.

Brenda Gray, chair of Moving On, said: "This was an awareness morning and we launched our new logo and promotional material. "We actually made £95, for which we are very grateful and amazed at people's generosity.

"It was an extremely successful event attended by the mayor and local residents who came along to see what the organisation did.

THE relaunch of a local baby and toddler group has been a success with an increase in numbers, new equipment and added support from the community.

Staff at Tiddlers a Salway Ash have received lots of support and funding from local businesses since rejuvenating the group in September, with new leaders also working hard to fundraise for new toys, and they would like to thank all those that have helped.

Magna Housing also granted the group £1,000 as part of their community initiative fund.

Emma Pawley, who runs the group, said: "The donation from Magna was amazing, it meant we could get more than just the basics, like insurance and some replacement toys, which our fundraising had covered.

"We were able to go that bit further and buy a bouncy castle, disco lights, pop up tents, baby mats and many more baby toys – much more than I can mention

jobs for back-to-workers

GROVES Nurseries in Bridport have been giving support to people getting back into work, an initiative by local Community Resource Teams, part of a country wide secondary mental health care provider

The company have offered those recovering from mental illness the chance for paid work at the garden centre for a month to help them with their return to employment, gain experience and reference to help with their job search afterwards.

The Community Resource Teams, situated around Dorset, work with and support those recovering from mental illness in accessing employment and reengaging with the community, working with local businesses to secure placements.

And although Groves Nurseries predominantly offer retail work, and therefore not always suitable for those who suffer from anxiety, managing director Charlie Groves has tried to find work appropriate for each individual.

Simon Comerford, a member of central Dorset Community Resource Team covering Dorchester to Lyme Regis and Beaminster, said: "We offer support and help, as confidence and anxiety can be a barrier, we find out what the individual wants and we start building bridges for them to be able to get where they want to be - it is completely led by them.

"Charlie at Groves has been brilliant, we discussed the idea and he was perfectly happy to offer a month of work

"It is mostly retail, but with someone who has high anxiety and skills in gardening, he was able to find work for him with the centre's maintenance man - Charlie needs a huge pat on the back for what he is doing.

"We are also looking for more businesses who would be happy to offer opportunities for work experience placements to help them get their confidence back, dust off their skills, and get a reference for future work."

For more information and any businesses interested should contact Mr Comerford on 07824104646.

ESTABLISHED for over 40 years, Sherborne Turf is situated in the picturesque village of Trent in Dorset, where we have around 150 acres of quality farmland dedicated to the production of our Trent Turf. Grown without netting, we use a blend of grasses developed over the years that will knit together to form a firm base, and leave our turf in the ground for 18 months before harvesting. It is then freshly cut to order and delivered using our own vehicles. While the trade standard for delivery is 'kerb-side', we

Groves Treemendous Weekend - Nov 14th & 15th

Autumn is the perfect time for tree planting, the soil is still warm and the wonderful autumn rain settles them in nicely. To celebrate this wonderful time of year we are dedicating a weekend to help illustrate the fantastic variety of trees available and how easy it is to grow them and even better there will be a 10% discount on all trees & free delivery (in the local area)

Our expert nurserymen, including tree expert Steve, will be on hand to advise you on the perfect tree for the perfect place; no matter the size of garden he can recommend a tree that will give you years of pleasure. We have some spectacular trees for small gardens with beautiful blossoms and autumn colour.

Also with us will be Carl Stoodley of Bridport Forest and Tree Care who has years of experience and can advise on planting trees plus garden design incorporating the right trees for colour and interest throughout the year.

The experts will also be able to advise you on how to look after your trees - planting, pruning and pest treatments and they will give you some great ideas on under planting your trees for added interest.

Come along and choose from over 150 varieties of ornamental trees and 70 varieties of fruit trees. If you fancy something a bit different then try one of our Medlars, Quince, Pluots (stone fruits) or Family trees that have 3 varieties of apple or pear on the one tree.

We'll also be having a hedging clearance sale so if you are planning a new one don't miss out on great offers on these as well.

Whether it's juicy apples for you, berries for the birds or snazzy bark for winter colour, trees make a wonderful feature in your garden so come along on Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th November and let us inspire you!

Unit 2A Corbin Way, Gore Cross Business Park, Bridport.

WITH the cold nights drawing in, motorists are advised not be caught short by a sudden drop in temperature to start to get their cars ready to face the Cars are more likely to experience problems in bad weather. So here are some top tips that will help keep cars and their drivers safe on the road this win-

- Maintenance: Make sure your antifreeze is topped up and that all your lights are in full working order. Ensure your windscreen wipers are in good condition and that the screen wash is full.
- Battery: According to the RAC, battery failure causes the most winter breakdowns. A battery more than four years old may

- struggle in the cold so get it checked out. Heaters: Make sure your cars heaters and brakes are in full working order.
- Tyres: When the snow arrives, consider getting winter tyres or chains fitted winter tyres are the better option of the two and improve handling and reduce stopping distances when the weather is
- Be Prepared: Keep a shovel, torch and blanket in your boot. Wellington boots, some warm clothes and emergency rations (for longer journeys) are also useful. If you do have to go out in terrible conditions, make sure you have enough petrol in the tank in case of any delays and that your mobile is fully charged.
- Plan your journey: Listen to the weather fore cast and travel bulletins for the areas you will be driving through. Plan your route, and an alternative should you need to change it at the last minute.
- If you must travel then let someone know where you are going and what time you hope to arrive, so that they can raise the alarm if you don't arrive.

ROCK ROYALTY TO PERFORM ACOUSTIC SET AT THE CROWN INN

Will Johns returns to Bridport for an intimate set

WILL JOHNS is recognised as one of the most distinctive and exciting performers on the British Blues scene today. His guitar playing is both modern and cutting edge but also steeped in the blues history passed from generation to generation. Hardly surprising as Will has direct heritage to a golden age of music. As well as being a spellbinding live act, Will is a hugely respected songwriter, having thrice been nominated for 'Best Original Blues Song' by the British Blues Awards in 3 consecutive years.

Born in London, Will's parents are the legendary L.A. record producer/ engineer Andy Johns and actress/ model Paula Boyd. From the age of 15 Will taught himself guitar but received huge encouragement from his world renowned uncle, Eric Clapton.

Having been writing and performing for over 15 years across the globe Will has picked up many accolades along the journey, not least his BBA nominations for 'On My Back' from his debut solo album Count On Me in 2012, and for 'Kissing You' from the superb Hooks & Lines album in 2013. A big favourite among festival goers, Will has appeared across the U.K. at such prestigious events as Blues On The Farm, Birmingham Jazz and Blues and Cambridge Rock Festival.

2015 has been one of the busiest and most fruitful year of Will's career to date. He has been working hard on writing and recording new material for his third album "Something Old, Something New.:

The year started with Will travelling to Russia with good friend Malcolm Bruce on a cultural and musical adventure that has been documented on Discovery Russia and can be viewed on their website. After performing at The Central House of Artists the adventure really got under way visiting the remote territory Mordovia, performing in the GULAG region in a women's prison for 200 plus serious offenders, an experience Will describes as one of the moving of his life. As if this wasn't enough immediately afterwards they were involved in a minor car accident 150km from anywhere in the midst of gales and snow-

He has still found time this year to complete a U.K. tour as part of Fresh Cream alongside Malcolm Bruce and Chris Page on drums performing the songs of Cream. The tour included a memorable show at The Borderline, London which featured the original lyricist Pete Brown.

Will has also made regular guest appearances with stunning vocalist Malaya Blue, joining her at The Skegness Blues & Rock Festival and at The Jazz Café for an Anti-Slavery Charity event among others.

Catch Will Johns' intimate performance at the Crown Inn, Bridport, this Sunday (November 15th) from 4-6pm.

Fred McAulay's Twenty Fifteen at the Marine

ONE OF Scotland's best loved comedians and star of BBC Radio 4's The News Quiz, Bridget Christie Minds The Gap and The Unbelievable Truth, Fred MacAulay, hits the Marine Theatre stage on Monday, November 16th.

In his first tour since 2012, Fred looks at his family life at home and looks forward to how his country will shape up after the referendum of 2014. As well as looking backwards and forwards, he'll probably look sideways at politics, sport, the environment and, without sounding too like a brief for a newspaper, there will undoubtedly be a colour supplement with a look at 'celebrity'.

2015 is a hugely significant year for the long-running BBC Scotland presenter. Back on the road again after 18 years at BBC Radio Scotland presenting the very funny and eventful MacAulay and Co., Fred's on air witticisms and on screen reputation are the product of years of experience on the live circuit, including a stint as the first ever-Scottish compere at the Comedy Store in London. He is a regular favourite at the Edinburgh Fringe (this year will be his 27th!).

He has a string of TV appearances under his sporran, from Mock the Week, QI and Have I Got News For You to a guest-spot on The Late Late Show with Craig Ferguson in the US. He has presented many programmes for the BBC, including McCoist and MacAulay, Life According to Fred, Hoots, Simply Fred, Scots on the Box and On The Road with Martell Maxwell, and he lasted 7 out of 11 nights when he sang on Comic Relief Does Fame Academy! He has also guest-starred on various Radio 4 panel shows such as I'm Sorry I Haven't a Clue, Just A Minute, The Unbelievable Truth and is a regular panelist on The News Quiz.

Fred McAulay performs at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Monday, November 16th at 8.00pm Tickets are £14 or £12, and a Theatre-Friends discount is available. The show is suitable for ages 16+. To book tickets, contact TIC on 01297 442138 or visit www.marinetheatre.com

The Swingrowers

DON'T miss the fabulous Swingrowers, an electroswing quintet from Palermo at Bridport Arts Centre this Saturday, November 14th. The gig will be followed by the much loved Frolic Disco for their second partnership with BAC.

Swingrowers music is mixture of jazz, swing and sounds derived from the electro dance scene to give it a modern flavour. The band are best known for their large tour of Europe and North America and for supporting the likes of Parov Stelar, Chinese Man and Caravan Palace. Their new album 'REMOTE' was released in December 2014 and they are now touring their live show around the world.

Following Swingrower's set the entertainment will continue with Frolic Disco, the age defying danceathon for people who like their grooves fast and varied. Frolic Disco started in Bridport May 2011 and has become a popular and well loved, ego free, community event. It boasts a broad age range who enjoy dancing to quality eclectic music.

It promises to be a great night and the Arts Centre will have a 2am extended late night curfew for those who want to dance into the small hours!

Christmas
Pudding
Preparation time
Overnight
Cooking time
2 hours

Ingredients

350g/12oz mixed dried fruit (raisins, currants, sultanas)

 $100g/3\frac{1}{2}$ oz pitted ready-to-eat prunes, chopped or left whole

100g/3½oz dark muscovado sugar • 4 tbsp dark rum 100ml/3½fl oz stout • 100g/3½oz chopped walnuts 100g/3½oz blanched almonds • 100g/3½oz ground almonds

100g/3½oz fresh white breadcrumbs • 50g/1¾oz plain flour

. 100g/3½oz frozen butter, grated, plus a little extra for greasing

½ tsp freshly grated nutmeg • 1 tsp ground cinnamon

2 tsp mixed spice • 100g/3½oz chopped glacé cherries (or left whole if you prefer) • 3 large free-range eggs, beaten

Preparation method

 Combine the mixed fruit, prunes, muscovado sugar, rum and stout in a mixing bowl. Stir well to mix, cover and leave for 24 hours to soak.

2. After 24 hours, mix the walnuts, almonds, ground almonds, breadcrumbs, flour, butter, spices, cherries and eggs along with the soaked fruit mixture in a large mixing bowl, making sure you include all the soaking liquor from the soaked fruit. Mix well until completely combined (let all the members of the family have a stir and make a wish).

3. Cover with cling film and leave to stand in a cool place for 24 hours.

4. After 24 hours, grease a 1.2 litre/2 pint pudding basin with butter. Cut a circle of baking paper and place into the bottom of the pudding basin and then grease it with a little more butter. Pack the pudding mixture into the pudding basin, pressing as you add it. Fold a pleat into the middle of a large piece of baking paper and place over the pudding. Cover with a large piece of pleated foil, ensuring the pleats are on top of one another. Secure tightly with kitchen string tied under the lip of the pudding basin

Dasin.

5. Place an upturned saucer into a large saucepan one-quarter full of water. Fold a long piece of foil into quarters lengthways to create a long strip and place the pudding basin in the middle of the strip. Bring the sides of the strip up the sides of the pudding basin and lower into the saucepan. Ensure the water in the saucepan comes one-third of the way up the side of the pudding basin, but nowhere near the top of the basin. Leave the ends of the foil strip hanging over the side to make it easy to remove the pudding later.

6. Bring the water to the boil and then reduce the heat to a gentle simmer. Simmer gently for 5-6 hours, topping up the water level as necessary throughout cooking (do not allow the pan to dry out).

7. Once the pudding is cooked, remove from the pan and set aside to cool. The pudding can be stored for up to two years in a cool, dry place. To serve, reheat the pudding by steaming again (in the same way) for two hours, or until hot all the way through. Alternatively, remove the foil and reheat in the microwave.

Tierra Kitchen's Butternut Squash soup with Moroccan spices and crispy chick peas

This delicious Autumnal soup has a deep golden colour and a silky velvet texture. The spices used in classic Moroccan "ras el hanout", which literally means top of the draw, have a floral flavour, which gives the famous tagines and other Moroccan dishes their unique character. The spice mix includes fennel, cumin, coriander, saffron and rose petals which produces a soup with a sweet depth of flavour. Serves 4

Equipment needed; a blender/food processor

Ingredients

50 ml extra virgin olive oil

2 medium onions, peeled and finely sliced

3 large cloves garlic, peeled and fine chopped

2 sticks celery, chopped into 1 cm pieces

2 small butternut squash (approximately 1 kilo), peeled, de-seeded and cut into 2cm square chunks

2 heaped dessert spoons

ras el hanout spice mix

1.2 litres vegetable stock

1 level dessert spoon

Maldon/ good quality sea salt flakes

200 gm cooked chick peas

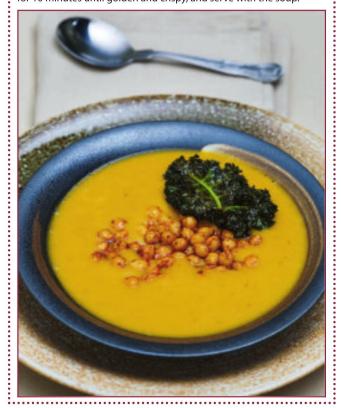

Method

Place a good sized saucepan on a moderate heat, add half the olive oil and the sliced onion, saute for 3 minutes until the onion is softening and becoming translucent, add the garlic and celery, saute for 2 more minutes, taking care not to colour the vegetables. Now add the butternut squash and half the ras el hanout, saute and stir for 5 minutes. Add the stock and sea salt flakes, bring the soup to the boil, simmer gently for 25 minutes.

Blend the soup in a food processor for 2 minutes until smooth and silky. Roast chick peas;

Pre-heat oven to 180 Degrees C

Baste the chick peas in the remaining olive oil and ras el hanout, roast for 10 minutes until golden and crispy, and serve with the soup.

Cricket St Thomas

A cider-country jewel with a rum touch of maritime, Cricket St. Thomas is an elegant mansion built c1820. Designed in the Regency manner by the famed neoclassicist Sir John Soane, the house is noted for its glorious Grade II-listed gardens of mature cedars, maples and yews, on whose layout the 2nd Baron Bridport spent over £250,000; damming a stream, creating a chain of lakes and planting ornamental trees and shrubs. But for a country estate so rural in its setting, the story of Cricket St Thomas is decidedly maritime in flavour.

In c1328, the manor was bought by Sir Walter de Rodney, ancestor of Admiral, Lord Rodney. Then, in 1775, the estate was acquired by Alexander Hood, who was to assume second-in-command of the Channel fleet during the Napoleonic Wars. And to cap it all, the vice-admiral's heir Samuel Hood, the 2nd Baron Bridport, married Horatio Nelson's niece Charlotte, whose uncle and Lady Hamilton were frequent guests at the house.

Today you can readily appreciate and enjoy the loving care that Lord Hood and his family lavished on this stunning estate. Within the grounds is the 12th Century parish church of St Thomas, which features the brocade cloth which adorned the Coronation altar in

All told, with a heritage as noble and as varied as this, it's small wonder that the BBC chose the estate of Cricket St Thomas as location for the popular sitcom 'To The Manor Born' adding a fitting extra dimension to a history that's already an embarrassment of riches.

FESTIVE FAYRE & FANCY DINING

Felt Christmas Tree Ornament Tutorial

www.buddlycrafts.com | Handmade by Josie Day

Whilst I love zooming up and down on my sewing machine, there's something about the shorter winter nights which makes me want to curl up in front of the fire with a hand sewing project and here's the ideal make - Funky little felt ornaments. They're perfect for hanging on your tree or adorning that special present. I've also included a freestanding version, offering up even more decorating possibilities for your dinner table or festive mantel!

Step 1. Trace around the wooden Christmas tree shape onto your green and brown felt and cut out the required number of pieces. You will need two green tree fronts and one brown trunk for each ornament. I used a light green felt which, combined with bright buttons, gives a really modern feel to the project. Should you prefer a more traditional theme, simply use a darker felt and scarlet buttons.

Step 2. Place the mini buttons into a pleasing arrangement and then stitch securely using matching thread.

Step 3. Using green thread stitch around the tree shape, inserting a burlap loop at the top and the brown trunk piece at the bottom.

Step 4. If you are making the free standing version, colour a craft stick with brown felt-tip pen and insert along with your stuffing.

Step 5. Insert the craft stick into a large wooden bead or wooden sewing bobbin.

Step 6. That's it!

Now simply give your new handmade ornament pride of place amongst your other decorations!

Encore have Blithe Spirit this autumn

REHEARSALS are well under way for the cast and crew at Encore Theatre Club as they prepare for their latest production. This year's performance will be Noël Cowards classic Blithe Spirit, to be held in Bridport Arts Centre in November.

Blithe Spirit is a highly popular comic play that has been revived many times since its record breaking opening run in the West End. The play was first performed in 1941, with Broadway transfer production following hard on its heels. Its most recent outing was in the West End with Angela Lansbury last year demonstrating the ongoing appeal of the play Noël Coward described as an "improbable farce".

The smash comedy hit revolves around socialite and novelist Charles Condomine, who invites the eccentric medium and clairvoyant, Madame Arcati, to his house to conduct a séance, with the aim of gathering material for his next book. His plans backfire when he is haunted by the ghost of his annoying and temperamental first wife, Elvira, after the séance. Elvira makes continual attempts to disrupt Charles's marriage to his second wife, Ruth, who cannot see

Jacqui Wood is directing her first play for Encore, after a working on a number of productions in London, and is excited about the opportunities both Blithe Spirit, and Encore, offer. Jacqui said; "Blithe Spirit is a wonderful play, and the case and crew of Encore have been really enjoying the rehearsals so far. Everyone is looking forward to bringing such a classic, and very funny, show to the Bridport stage - and I'd urge people to get their tickets early."

WITH POSSIBLY one of the most stunning views any countryside pub could have, The Anchor Inn, Seatown is a top Dorset destination venue for thousands of guests, visitors and holiday makers every year, especially when the sun is out in all it's glory.

This constantly busy Public House has become even more so after it's tasteful refurbishment by Palmer's Brewery, and constant strive to achieve more by Landlord Paul Wiscombe. The refurbishment itself (complete with the addition of three beautifully presented Guests' rooms) was done to reflect a traditional coastal Pub, whilst giving it a fresh, contemporary and up to date feel which has been well received.

With the new additions of renown Cocktail Barman David Smith, and Head Chef Jean-Paul De Ronne (who both started towards the end of Summer) both the Drinks and the Food on offer have been given a total reworking to perfectly reflect the new direction in which Mr Wiscombe and his team are keen to take The Anchor Inn.

David immediately set to work creating a small but bespoke cocktail menu to comfortably sit alongside the Pubs great selection of locally produced Palmers real Ales. New signature mixed drinks such as the Clyde Cocktail (Palmers Tally Ho! And Bacon Infused Bourbon) has been selling well, matched to dishes created by Jean-Paul and his Kitchen team, and alongside quite a unique seasonal drinks list, ever changing dependent on what ingredients are available to forage and pick locally which again compliments the seasonally changing menu and daily changing specials boards.

After the success of Chef Jean-Paul's inaugural menu, he wasted no time in setting up his new Winter addition, which after its' first full week has received high praise and compliments all round. Dishes such as Veal Carpaccio, Smokey Chowder, Lamb Shoulder Shepherds' Pie, Bloody Mary Crab Arancini, and Spiced Pumpkin & Orzo Pasta are all created from scratch using as many locally sourced ingredients as possible to reflect the seasons surrounding the location.

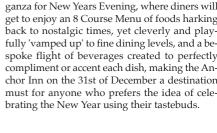

And together, they have continued to create further with the inclusion of a special Christmas menu which is running through most of December.

"The freedom we have here is what enables us to push forwards and create some truly exciting and unique

Food and Drink", said Jean-Paul, "We have had amazing support from not only the entire team here, but also from Palmers Brewery, which really helps us to push onwards and insist on continuing to offer the complete experience. For us, the important part of what we do and why we do it, is so we can give our guests something truly memorable and extra special".

David continued, "We are also lucky that we get to do something that we are truly passionate about in the location we both couldn't wait to get stuck into. With a mutual admiration for each others craft and knowledge, the idea of fully merging the relationship between food and drink experiences was the natural progression to take, which in turn is definitely at the core of the new direction that Paul wants The Anchor to head. All of the staff, Paul and ourselves have worked hard to make these changes, and even though it is all still new, we cannot wait to continue to progress".

And to almost act as a highlight to their testaments, the entire team have come together to create an extra special Food and Drink Extravaand refurbishment this is a good sized family home within the popular Bridge Road estate. Although the property requires modernising now there is real scope to enlarge the house if required to the side or back subject to planning.

Briefly there are three bedrooms, Kitchen/diner, living room and separate WC and bathroom. Decent sized garden to the back and a long wide side driveway plus a small front garden.

It will require new windows, central heating and rewiring plus probably new kitchen and bathroom. We have already had quotes for the latter available on viewing. As an ex-council home this is subject to Section 157 of the Housing Act restricting sales to local Dorset purchasers. Contact Fortnam Smith & Banwell in

GARTON House is a Grade II Listed, partially attached, substantial Georgian property situated close to the town centre of Colyton, within a few hundred metres level walk of most of the town's amenities. Although the property is in need of modernisation and repair, the house could make a very attractive, spacious family home. The accommodation provides four good sized bedrooms rooms, spacious hallway, kitchen and w.c. on the ground level. Outside, to one side and continuing to the back of the property is a gated driveway providing parking for several vehicles and a garage. This is unusual for a property so close to town. On the other side of the house, accessed from the dining room is a very pretty and well stocked part-walled garden. And finally, behind the garage, a door leads to a further small enclosed garden area. Colyton is a pretty little market town (more like a village) with a small town centre offering a good range of daily needs including two convenience stores, fish and chip shop, butcher, hairdressers, post office, small stationers, pharmacy, health centre, garden centre, library and a few other individual shops. There is a primary school in the town and the well regarded Colyton Grammar School is just over a mile away. A beautiful

Church is at the heart of the town and there is an interesting variety of architecture. The tram from Seaton which runs along the Estuary stops at Colyton and there are frequent buses to Seaton and Axminster. Nearby Axminster (6 miles), has a mainline station with regular trains to London Waterloo and Exeter. The city of Exeter is approx. 25mins by car and the airport just outside Exeter is approx. 19 miles. Please call Gordon and Rumsby for more details or to arrange a viewing on 01297 553768.

WE NIEED YOUR PROPERTY!

Yes - it's been anotherstrange year in our little local housing market. The press keeps telling us that property prices are going up and demand is high. In our beautiful rural part of the country (as in many other renal parts), we have a very differentistate of affairs with a differentiset of discumstances that dictate our activity. The Spring and early summer were poor this year, the election playing its part, and we have seen the most activity during the oddest times of the year with February and October being our bestmonths for sales. As a result, we urgently require more properties in all price ranges. We can promise that you will get value for money from us as we work very hard for our client (the seller), so if you have been contemplating a move, please give me a call and I will be delighted to provide a market appraisal on your property – with no obligation of course. Dear Jeremy,

We are writing with reference to our recent house sale and purchase through your Beaminster office. We had such amazing and dedicated service from both yourself and Caroline that we felt that a letter of acknowledgement and praise to you was appropriate. The teamwork and calm approach to the difficulties that arose in the house buying process were outstanding, the patience dealing with on some day many phone calls was unfaltering, and you are always helpful and happy to calm frayed nerves. Completion day in August juggling four properties, solicitors and vendors was seamless and smooth in large due part to the experience and knowledge provided by both yourself and Caroline.

A huge thank you to you both, also for finding our dream house and making our dream come true, I would highly and happily recommend Symonds & Sampson to anyone thinking of buying or selling a house and if we ever move from our beautiful house you will be the trusted agents for us again.

- Yours sincerely, Mr. and Mrs. Pent

We would like to express our gratitude to all of you for your help in our purchase of our new home in Corscombe. You all acted in a highly professional manner, at the same time you gave a very warm and friendly service which is much appreciated.

Caroline Childs, sales negotiator at Symonds&Sampson award winning office in Beaminster, is seen here with a delighted Mr. Haskey collecting his keys for his new home which he purchased with his wife in Mosterton.

Mr. Haskey commented: "We wanted to say thank you so very much to Symonds&Sampson for being so helpful and efficient during our recent purchase of our new home. Caroline has been extremely patient, understanding and good humoured and has held our hand through our purchase even though it took us sometime to find the right property. If we ever decide to move again we will be back!"

Jeremy Smith, Senior Manager of Symonds&Sampson in Beaminster added: "I am thrilled with all these kind words recently received, we are finding the market extremely busy and now require further properties to sell to waiting buyers. Renault Twingo to receive EDC transmission RENAULT'S Efficient Dual Clutch transmission, known as EDC, has been introduced on its ingenious urban runaround Twingo. The multiple award-winning city car gains the innovative automatic gearbox for the popular TCe90 engine just over a year after launch, resulting in a number of benefits for the customer.

The introduction on Twingo means that Renault's EDC transmission is now available across the majority of its range. EDC is an automatic dual dry clutch transmission dispensing with the need for a clutch pedal. Gearshift control is of the 'P-R-N-D' type, plus an 'up/down' shift mode. The ideal gear is selected by an electronic control unit and gearshifts are both automatic and comfortable.

Available for £900 more than the equivalent manual version, the introduction of the EDC transmission offers the driver and passengers a smooth journey thanks to an ultrafast shift time of 290ms. The transmission's 'creep' control also helps the driver in crawling traffic, pulling away gradually when the brake pedal is released. The EDC transmission also offers Hill Start Assist as standard, ensuring safe hill starts when partnered with the 'creep' control system.

The Twingo EDC's 0.9-litre 90hp turbo engine is also available with Renault's ECO mode, cutting fuel consumption by up to 10%. Actionable by the driver, the mode modifies the management of the gearbox ECU (Electronic Control Unit), enabling gear shifts at lower rpm.

Changes have also been made to the Twingo's specification, with six-spoke 15" inch 'Ariane' alloy wheels becoming standard on Dynamique trim, replacing the 15" 'Exception' allovs. Customers will also be able to choose from the option of having extra-tinted rear windows on Dynamique and Dynamique S trim levels.

The five-door, four-seater Twingo is priced from £9,495. Its highly unusual rear-engined, rear-wheel-drive layout allows it to be both compact and spacious. Because the engine is mounted at an angle of 49 degrees to the vertical, the Twingo still manages to provide a capacious boot of between 219 (seats in cargo) and 980 litres (seats folded). Another highly beneficial effect of the mechanical lavout is the class-leading turning circle of less than 8.6 metres, because the movement of the front wheels is not restricted by the engine.

The Twingo is available in four versions, powered by a choice of two three-cylinder engines - a 1.0-litre 70hp normally aspirated unit or a 0.9-litre 90hp turbo. Both endow the Twingo with to match its agile, nimble handling.

The Twingo is fully connected to the outside world through the standard smartphone-operated R&GO® feature or Renault's optional R-Link multimedia system with seven-inch touchscreen, and offers a huge range of personalisation options so that buyers can create a bespoke car.

As with all new Renaults, Twingo is covered by a four-year warranty that offers unlimitedmileage cover in the first two years and then two further years of protection up to 100,000 miles. Four years roadside assistance cover is also included.

Avoid a winter breakdown in five easy steps, says GEM tips for drivers to ensure trouble-free journeys this winter. Giving some attention now to batteries, tyres, anti-freeze, wipers, lights and other car essentials is the best way of ensuring reliability in the months to come, savs GEM

GEM chief executive David Williams MBE comments: "The last thing anyone needs is to break down on a chilly morning. Prevention is always better than cure, so by paying some attention to basic winter maintenance needs, you have the best chance of ensuring you don't get stranded out in the cold."

Here are GEM's five simple steps for reducing the chance of a breakdown or malfunction this winter:

1 Get the battery and charging system checked to ensure best performance. A large number of winter calls to GEM's breakdown control centre relate to flat batteries. Cold weather puts a lot of strain on tired batteries, so consider changing it now to avoid the inconvenience of a breakdown.

2 Ensure your car's cooling system has the correct levels of anti-freeze, which is vital to prevent the water in your engine's cooling system from freezing. GEM recommends you consult your local dealer or a qualified mechanic to ensure this is done correctly.

3 Check tyre tread depth and pressure weekly through the winter. Good tyres will ensure the safety

▲ 5 steps to avoid a winter breakdown

a minimum tread depth of 3mm (the legal minimum is 1.6mm), as this will disperse much more water from the road and will minimise your risk of skidding and losing control.

4 Make sure all the lights on your car, inside and out, are working properly. Clean them regularly to ensure they are free of dirt, so that you can see, and others can see you.

Do you need new windscreen wipers at front and rear? Check for efficient working and use cold weather washer fluid. Do not use the windscreen wipers to clear ice, as this will very quickly lead

Seasiders fightback in 'historic home game' - Ambers edged out in nine goal thriller responded in fine fashion to lead 4-2

RESULTS - Saturday, November 7th DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE CULLOMPTON RANGER RES P LYME REGIS P Division Two

Postponed - Waterlogged pitch.

LYME REGIS RESERVES 2 PINHOE RES 2 Division Seven

LYME Regis Reserved extended their unbeaten run to ten matches in their first ever 'home' match played on a 3G

With the Davey Fort taking a battering by the prolonged downpours that made for a miserable week, Lyme Regis Reserve team manager Gerard Hitchcock took the opportunity to book the superb new facility at Axminster Valley Community Col-

Both sets of players took a while to settle in a full-blooded league match on the unfamiliar surface.

The third-placed visitors, boosted by the inclusion of a bristling of regulars from the Division Four side who had their fixture against Morchard Bishop rained off, were on the back foot for the opening 20 minutes as Lyme crafted the best chances.

Alfie Jaques had an early 20-yard effort deflected over the bar. Then an Alex Rowe shot was parried by Pins' keeper Reece Clift, the rebound was returned in to the box where the unmarked Fred Thomson blazed a vollev high over the bar.

The next chance fell to Adam Caddy, making an impressive return to Lyme colours after a period away travelling, who volleyed wide after good work from Jaques.

Caddy was to go on and have a major impact on the match. But from here the visitors edged play up until the interval. They were rewarded striker Mukonoweshuro burst on to a low cross from the right before netting with a side foot shot from eight yards.

The Seasiders equalised four minutes after the turnaround when a corner kick was only half cleared and Wallace Blackmore's header was coolly slotted home by Caddy.

But the parity last just two minutes when Mukonoweshuro rolled the ball past onrushing keeper Toby Fowler following a slip by Blackmore

The goal sparked a flurry of chances as the game opened up.

An unmarked Jaques headed over when well placed, Thomson had a low 20-yarder saved and Caddy nodded an effort over the angle.

At the other end Fowler saved bravely low down on the edge of the box before Lyme responded. Caddy slashed a shot wide but went one better in the 69th minute when he surged through the inside right channel before cutting back on to his left foot and rolling the ball home. Both sides will be reasonable pleased with the point from the draw a fair outcome on an interesting day for the large Lyme support who saw Caddy and centre-back Mark Batey take star billing.

DORSET JUNIOR CUP R2 BROADSTONE SENIORS 1 DRIMPTON 5

A SUPERB first-half performance formed the basis of a convincing win that earned Drimpton a quarter-final at either Maiden Newton or Bradford Abbas.

Terry Farrell (2), Craig Studley, Barry Hayne and Lee Banks netted for the Greens who were away and clear at 4-0 at the break.

WAYTOWN HOUNDS 3 THORNCOMBE 0 WAYTOWN had few problems as they eased through to the last eight of the Dorset Junior Cup.

They led 1-0 at half time after Sam Dowle crossed from the left, Edd Stephenson headed the ball back across the goalmouth and in-form

Garry Goodall was there to head

Early in the second half Hounds' keeper Lee Cuff made a fine save to deny the Thorns.

The killer second goal came 15 minutes time from when substitute Jon Legg, in his first appearance of the season after being hospitalised with a rare virus, played a perfect through ball to James Loveridge who ran through one-on-one with the keeper and slotted the ball home.

Simon Smyth got the Hounds'third after good work from Loveridge and Waytown manager Mark Hughes picked out Tom Knott as his MoM.

SHEPTON BEAUCHAMP 10 CREWKERNE 1 THE Local derby at Brimgrove Lane went with form as title contenders Shepton Beauchamp came from behind to thrash beleaguered neigh-

The visitors, clearly embarking on a huge rebuilding process following the defection of most of last season's championship winning squad along with the majority of their club officers, took an early lead when Kieran Adams netted for the third game in succession.

The Tigers then went close to adding a second only to be denied by the upright. This near miss seemed to spark the hosts into life.

After netting 210 times for Crewkerne, Jamie Spurdle showed his old club no mercy as he bagged his first hat-trick in the blue of Shepton.

Kris Hastings also scored three times to move into double figures for the season as did Ben Pitman who chipped in with one.

Jon Spendlow, Aaron Sweet and Adam Dawe netted the others for Aggie Smith's side who move up to second spot in the table and are now unbeaten in 10 ahead of Saturday's visit by Wincanton Town Reserves with a place in the Somerset Junior Cup quarter-finals at stake.

W & M CHINOCK 5 NETHERBURY 4

HAVING led 3-2 Netherbury were on the wrong end of a high scoring game at a heavy Oxleaze Ground on

The Ambers were caught cold on eight minutes, when a cross came over to Luke Williams who controlled and finished well from close range.

Netherbury deservedly got level midway through the half when an excellent corner from Paul Ruffles was headed in by Ryan Gall. However, the hosts were soon back ahead when the Ambers lost the ball in midfield and a smart through ball played in Conor Smith who did well to cut inside Richard Pincombe and curl in a lovely left footed finish into the bottom corner.

Netherbury duly got back into the game again and made it 2-2 when Pincombe rose to plant in a smart header at the back post from another excellent deliver from Ruffles.

Going down the slope, the Ambers then used route one football to deservedly go ahead when Gall flicked on for Mark Cuff who controlled the ball well before hitting a nice left footed shot across the Chinns keepermanager Matt Alford to make it 3-2 five minutes before the break.

But the hosts still found the time to level through Williams who smashed a brilliant half volley into the top corner via the finger tips of keeper Robin Harp who could not keep it out.

The game remained very even in the second half with the hosts looking to use their pace upfront. With 15 minutes to go the Chinnocks edged in front after a defensive clearance took a look a lucky rebound into the path of Williams who went through one-on-one with Harp to score.

Netherbury took risks to try and get back into the game and some poor play at the back, resulted in a fifth for Chinnock and fourth for the livewire Williams.

Ryan Gay smashed in a good half volley during a goal mouth scramble in the 90 minute to reduce the arrears, but time had run out for the Ambers whose Manager Andy Loudon said: "This is another game we should have got something from but once again ended up empty

"We played very well in the first half

- if we could have held on to half time at 3-2, the result might have been different?" He praised Gall and Karl Ives

DIVISION TWO COMBE B 4 CHARD RANGERS 1

COMBE came form behind at Slades Cross to ease up to fifth place in the Division Two table.

Kevin Cavanagh put Rangers ahead early on. But this proved to be a false dawn for the visitors who ended up well beaten.

A superb individual effort from Graham Cleal squared things up before a Shane Scott cross led to a Chard defender putting through his own net.

A wonderful long-range strike from Neil Reid clinched the three points and Cleal netted his second to round things off late on.

KINGSBURY 1 SHEPTON BEAU RES 2

TWO goals from Simon Lock saw Shepton Beauchamp Reserves leap up to second spot in the Division Two table after a hard fought win at Kings-

Sixteen-year-old Will Arkell bagged the consolation for the Kings' whose player-chairman Giles McGilvray felt his side were worth a point.

WINSHAM UTD RES 9 THORNCOMBE RES 1 STRUGGLING Thorncombe Reserves conceded nine for the third game in succession and look set to be in for a long, hard season.

Shane Partridge headed Winsham in front the in the fifth minute and they never looked back, camping the Thorns half for long periods of the Dan Slade then scored twice; a crisp 20 yarder, followed by a jinking run past the majority of the visiting defence. Partridge bagged his second and Willis Lawrence made it 5-0 before the visitors pulled one back before the interval.

The second half was generally a low-key affair with a double from Winsh player-manager Richard White and singles from Ben Smith and Toby Thorne the highlights as the team racked up their biggest win for three

DIVISION THREE FIVEHEAD 2 DOWLISH & DONYATT 5

TITLE favourites Dowlish & Donyatt were forced to dia deep before eventually overturning a spirited Fivehead

A double from Tom Callow saw the hosts grab the early initiative as they surged into a 2-0 lead.

But the free-scoring Dodgers, with a average of seven goals per game to their name coming into the match,

George Hayward (2), Dan Vining (2) and Adam Payne scored for Dowlish.

Fine win for 2nds

Bridport 2nd 15 Riversmeet 3rd (Christchurch) 7

THIS was a particularly encouraging result for Bridport against a useful Riversmeet side, and augers well for the rest of the season writes Roger Steve Hodder at one started off particularly well against Richard Cheal; indeed he had his opponent on the back foot as he started in inspired form and took the first game.

This required Cheal to change tactics which he did in style completely upsetting Hodder's game plan with some patient play.

dominate with boast and drop shots which proved to be Hodder's downfall as Cheal ran out the winner 1-9, 9-5, 9-4, 9-6.

Tim Parkman was involved in a real struggle against Nigel Runnals at two with the Riversmeet player starting in dominant fashion forcing Parkman on the backfoot and looked to be heading for victory.

Burst of form

But Parkman suddenly had a run of good shots which gave him confidence, and consequently he turned the tables with a fine 7-9, 6-9, 9-7, 9-3, 9-

Chris Legg's game with Jay Wood at three, started in very tentative fashion with both players testing each other's tactics to the full, but eventually it was the sharp decisive play of Wood that was the turning point.

He put a lot of pressure on Legg by playing a whole range of shots and at a good length which meant Legg had to defend all the time before eventually going down 9-7, 9-3, 9-1.

Paul Cross, promoted from the third team, at four Bridport was up Riversmeet's Jason Collier who he has already played this sea-

As was the case last time, Cross' ability to hit the ball hard and clean and sending it to all the corners of the court was just too much for Collier and he went down 9-4, 9-0, 9-10.

Robert Muir at five was up against Phil James. The game ebbed and flowed throughout, but it was Muir's ability to force his opponent in to making mistakes which was the deciding factor and he went on through to record a 9-3, 3-9, 7-9, 9-1, 9-4 victory.

FORDINGBRIDGE 2nds are languishing at the foot of the Dorset & Wilts 2 South League Table and will remain there after what can only be described as a mauling by a rampant Bridport.

As their confidence grew in the first half, the hosts put on a superb display of running and passing, with all but one back getting over the try line.

Scorers were Dave Cutting at scrum half, Josh Walton and Ricky Stubbs, centres, Richard Middleton and Mike Walton on the wings, and Nathan Herbert at full half, but he managed seven out of eight conversions to take the halftime score to 54 –0.

One or two passes were spilled in the difficult conditions but the performance could hardly have been better.

Fordingbridge did mount some attacks of their own, but they were well defended by Bridport and, as in recent games, the home forwards were dominant.

Bridport posted a further 34 unanswered points in the second half, with Dan Down and Daragh Mcloughlin adding their names to the scoresheet. Stubbs and Josh Walton completed their hat-tricks. Man of the match was Stephen

Isca C 2 West Dorset Hawks 4

STEVE Mearing was the star of the show as West Dorset Hawks showed last season's form with victory over their Exeter opponents.

The Hawks have suffered a poor start to the campaign only recording one win in six before Saturday. Their opponents boasted four former England or National players while the Hawks gave a debut to John Dormer.

The pitch at Exeter University was strewn with storm debris; the twigs and leaves making it difficult to play on; and it took the Hawks time to settle.

Isca caught the Hawks napping taking the lead inside two minutes

However West Dorset replied immediately and Mearing mopped up a loose ball following a save by the keeper to grab the equaliser.

Midway through the first half Rick Steele found Mearing who hit a first time rocket before the home keeper Isca equalised just before the break after the ball hit a twig and bounced over a defenders stick in the build-up

Buoyed by this the hosts tried to intimidate the Hawks but their aggression backfired on them when the striker was sin binned for two minutes and West Dorset capitalised.

Alex Davies beat two players on a mazy run before playing in Mearing whose thunderbolt fizzed into the net.

With frustration setting in Isca had another player sent off for five minutes. Hawks kept their cool and when captain Robin Goodfellow intercepted a pass he found Mearing who fired home his

Beaminster 3 Yeovil & Sherborne 3rd 2 DESPITE a below par performance, Beaminster Ladies came from behind twice to go above their visitors in Channel Division One

A misunderstanding regarding umpires saw Beaminster's Julia May having to officiate for the first 12 minutes of the game. With the bare 11, the loss of the experienced midfielder showed, and Yeovil took the lead through Emma Gay after just four minutes.

Restored to full numbers, Beaminster still found it difficult to get back into the game, poor control and misplaced passes allowing their opponents posses-

However, Megan Tuck was unlucky with a sharp reverse stick shot from an angle that just missed the far post.

Tuck then produced a strong run and cross to set up Polly Davies but the striker, instead of shooting, wanted time to control the ball first and the chance

Pressure was building on the visitors and on 26 minutes some slick interplay between May and Prentice down the left finished with the latter firing home from Beaminster then forced a number of short corners but failed to capitalise, and right on then stroke of half-time Yeovil showed how to do it, taking the lead with their first short corner of the game.

The second half saw Yeovil on the back foot with home keeper Rachel Goodfellow virtually a spectator, but opportunities came and went.

It looked like their indifferent performance would cost them, but they regained parity when Phoebe Stewart scored following a short corner, her shot going through the keeper's legs.

They got the winner they deserved six minutes from time when Prentice fired home her second of the game.

The win moves Beaminster above their rivals and Poole into fourth.

& Fred Bacon Memorial Trophy AFTER looking comfortable, with a two goal lead six minutes into the second half, the Dorset FA Under 16s were stunned when Devon striker Jordan Ford bagged a hat-trick to take the three league points and the Fred Bacon Memorial Cup in the recent clash at Newton Abbot.

Ford made his presence felt early in the game when in the 8th minute, he got on the end of a cross from Tom Burgess, and had a header saved by Harvey McKirdy in the Dorset goal.

Dorset heeded the warning and were unlucky not to have taken the lead two minutes later when the impressive Marcus Holding shot wide when well placed.

Rowers impress in final test

THE Lyme Regis Gig club Men's section entered one last race this year, at an event hosted by the Cotehele Quay Gig club, situated on the picturesque banks of the river Tamar.

The Cotehele club was the finishing line at the end of its annual nine-mile endurance race.

As with the Three Rivers endurance race at the beginning of the season, this event started directly under the Tamar road bridge with all contesting boats under starters orders once their handicap had been calculated.

. This meant the potentially slower boats were off the start line first with the stronger teams following behind them.

The crew entered by Lyme were essentially a Supervets crew but as one of them was not old enough for Vets or Supervets entry, it was decided to declare themselves a Men's B team, putting them back down the starting order.

Once off the start line they held their own passing a couple of other crews on

THE opening game of this season's West Dorset Youth Cricket Indoor League produced a classic played between evenly matched sides.

Batting first Martinstown lost opener S.Williams (4) in the first over, the batsman showing both the sportsmanship and spirit of the game displayed by both teams by walking after a very faint edge to the keeper.

But Martinstown recovered well against an inexperienced Beaminster side. Finley Williams (58 no) and Nathen McNab (32no) produced an excellent partnership Beaminster struck running out C.Durrant

The returning McNab and Williams took the game to the bowlers with a measured attack as Martinstown finished their 12 overs

Beaminster's openers L.Keenan (17) and T.Pattemore (20) found runs hard to come by as McNab (1-20) and Durrant (0-16) produced good opening spells which had the batsman on the back foot from the very first

With the openers departing in quick succession B.Leather (29) and J.Page (27 no) steadied the ship before Leather was run out with the score on 109 with three overs remaining.

A.Moss (8) looked like taking Beaminster over the line, but he lost his wicket to another fine run out as the game built to a thrilling climax.

With 11 needed of six balls McNab held his nerve producing four dot balls as Martinstown won by three runs.

More injury blows for Bees

IF losing to Sherborne on penalties in the Dorset Junior Cup wasn't bad enough in the fourth meeting of the sides this season, the additional injuries incurred that are the biggest problem for Bridport manager Trevor Senior.

The biggest blow was the loss of player-coach Ryan Dovell who fractured three bones in his jaw following a clash of heads with colleague Max Buckler which will sideline the postman for six to eight weeks.

In addition Warren Byerley was substituted five minutes before halftime following a knock on the ankle before Mark Salter, making his first team debut, was replaced in the second half with a tight ham-

Despite this Bridport more than held their own against an always difficult Sherborne side, and Senior believes that with a full and fit team they could have progressed.
Richardson had cancelled out

Tony Cunningham's goal for the host, and Bridport created enough chances to have won the game despite their lack of numbers, before going out on penalties.

Saturday's postponement at Brislington has meant a few extra days recovery, and the hope is that Byerley, Salter and possibly Richardson were fit enough to take part in last night's home league fixture against Willand, although Senior is not ex-

The good news is that Alan Hill and Darren Watts will both be available, and keeper Ashley Wells id expected to be named in the squad following a back injury.

Both the Symes brothers, Jamie (ankle) and Adam (back) are still recovering and with Matt Condliffe and Gary Bulman now both available Senior is hoping for a change of luck as far as injuries are concerned.

The Bees boss is also worried that despite sitting midtable in the Pre-mier League, his side have only played ten games.

Some clubs have completed 18 already and everyone has played at least three more games than the

With heavier grounds and the chance of more postponements, Senior is going to need his full squad to be able to cope.
